

10 Great Interview Questions from Rory

1. If you had to pick your mother out of a crowd, how would you describe her physical appearance as a young parent? What about your father? What kind of personalities do they have? Loud and talkative or quiet and reserved?
2. What do you think you learned from each parent and how has this impacted you later in life?
3. What stories have you heard about your childhood? If you mom had to describe you as a toddler what would she say?
4. When you think of your grade school, what did it look like? What was your favorite activity during recess? What was your favorite subject?
5. What did your high school look like? What kind of students went to school with you? What was your high school known for?
6. Did any of your high school teachers make a major impact on you? Which ones were the best? What about the worst? What made them that way?
7. What kind of curfew or rules did your parents set for you and your siblings? Did the same rules apply as you got older and began dating? Were the rules the same for your brothers and sisters?
8. When did you meet your spouse? What were your first impressions of one another?
9. How did having a baby change your life – financially, spiritually, and emotionally? How were the first few months? Which family members helped out the most? What was a typical day like?
10. What kinds of words of wisdom would you tell friends, and family about living life? What, in your mind, is the key to happiness? What do you wish you had made more time for?