

StoryCatcher - Fact Sheet

Kit: The StoryCatcher

Tagline: “Capture your favorite stories from the past”

Concept: A do-it-yourself family history kit helps everyday people save their parent or grandparents best life stories through a specially designed oral history interview.

The Process:

- Step 1 - Choose a weekend: Our guide will help you pick the best time for the interviews and thoroughly prepared for the challenge ahead!
- Step 2 - Record the stories: Storytelling is made easy as your parent answer all of the specially crafted and thought-provoking questions.
- Step 3 – Share with family: After finishing your recordings rest easy knowing that your parent’s stories will never be lost – now their voice is only a click away.

Size: Over 135 pages of full color instructions

- Four short activities give instructions on how to create a successful audio recording.
- Tips from Family Historian, Rory Siefer, are interspersed throughout.
- Beautiful illustrations by a team of professional photographers help spark memories.

Price: $125

The kit includes:

- StoryCatcher Instruction Guide: Let us help you make most of your project. By following our interview preparation tips you’ll set the stage for a successful recording.
- Interview Guide: Here’s your chance to use the specially designed interview guide from Family Biographer, Rory Siefer. Over 1,000 questions will cover the gamut of events from your parent’s life and make it so you never want the storytelling to end!
- Digital Voice Recorder: Capture the entire interview on a brand new digital voice recorder. Save your parent’s voice and laughter to share with whole family. Now everyone can have a priceless copy to hold on to!

Facts:

- Designed to be completed in a weekend’s time, this program includes a 48-hour challenge to make sure families finish this important project.

- Has over 1,000 interview questions that cover topics like: ancestors, parents, childhood, school years, family traditions and holidays, dating, marriage and family, career, current events, and reflections on life.
- Questions help a family member recall more than just the facts, the specially crafted story-prompts help capture their personality and spirit too.